GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BOST TO PARKS AND RECREATION AUTHORITY

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Daryle L. Bost of Winston-Salem to the North Carolina Parks and Recreation Authority.

Bost is the Triad sales director for Womble Carlyle Sandridge and Rice in Winston-Salem. He is a member of Guilford College Board of Trustees and is a board member for the Winston-Salem Industries for the Blind. Bost received his Bachelor's degree in management from Guilford College.

The Parks and Recreation Authority receives private and public donations, appropriations, grants and revenues for the Parks and Recreation Trust Fund. Members work to allocate funds for land acquisitions, repairs and improvements. The authority has 15 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints five members. The Speaker of the House and the Senate President Pro Tempore each appoint five members.
